

Nearly 50% of pet parents can't cover surprise vet bills

How pet insurance helps

1. New pet parent takes cat or dog to the vet

Rainwalk covers up to 90% of vet bills for costly, unexpected pet accidents or illnesses. They can visit any licensed veterinarian of their choice.

2. Pet parent receives reimbursement in a few days

Filing claims with Rainwalk is easy and smartphone friendly. Pet parents simply snap a photo of their itemized vet bill and upload it to their account. Payment is sent via ACH or Venmo.

3. More pets stay in their new, happy homes

The financial relief pet insurance provides reduces pet returns by 40%.

"What isn't covered?"

Rainwalk offers a great-value pet insurance product with limited exclusions compared to other providers.

- Routine expenses like annual exams, heartworm & flea medication, and grooming are not covered
- Pre-existing conditions are not covered unless the pet is symptom-free for 180 days

"Do I really need pet insurance?"

Probably! The average emergency vet visit is $800 to $1,500, which many pet parents can't afford. Pet insurance helps ensure you never have to choose between your budget or your pet's medical needs.

By signing up today, pet parents get the usual 14-day waiting period waived. So coverage is active immediately!

What Rainwalk customers say

"I could not be any more thankful for having Rainwalk as my pet insurance for my troublemaker puppy! Not only is it super easy submitting a claim but they also got back to me within hours of submitting AND everything was covered. Pet insurance is worth it, especially with Rainwalk, don't let anyone tell you otherwise." - Brittany B.
